Details on May 16th Release of 2012 ASCO Annual Meeting Abstracts

The 2012 ASCO Annual Meeting abstracts featuring cabozantinib will be posted publicly on www.asco.org today, Wednesday, May 16, 2012, at 6:00 p.m. EDT. These abstracts were submitted to ASCO in early 2012 and do not incorporate data and new findings generated since that time. The latest and most up-to-date clinical data will be delivered during the investigators' presentations at the meeting itself, at the dates and times listed above.

Investor Briefing at the 2012 ASCO Annual Meeting

Exelixis will hold an investor briefing that will be webcast live on Monday, June 4, 2012, from 6:30-8:30 p.m. CDT. During the briefing, Exelixis management and other presenters will review and provide context for the latest clinical data for cabozantinib in medullary thyroid cancer, castration-resistant prostate cancer, and other tumor types, as presented at the ASCO Annual Meeting. In addition to Exelixis management, participants in the briefing will include:

- Dr. Jose Baselga, Massachusetts General Hospital Cancer Center, Boston, MA
- Dr. Toni Choueiri, Dana-Farber Cancer Institute/Brigham and Women's Hospital, Boston, MA
- Dr. Karim Fizazi, Institut Gustave Roussy, Paris, France
- Dr. Daniel George, Duke University Medical Center, Durham, NC
- Dr. Patrick Schöffski, Catholic University Leuven, Belgium
- Dr. Steven Sherman, MD Anderson Cancer Center, Houston, TX
- Dr. Matthew Smith, Massachusetts General Hospital Cancer Center, Boston, MA

The webcast will be accessible via the Event Calendar page under Investors at www.exelixis.com.

An archived replay of the webcast will be available on the Event Calendar page under Investors at www.exelixis.com and audio-only via phone until 11:59 p.m. EDT/8:59 p.m. PDT on July 11, 2012. About Exelixis

Exelixis, Inc. is a biotechnology company committed to developing small molecule therapies for the treatment of cancer. Exelixis is focusing its proprietary resources and development efforts exclusively on cabozantinib (XL184), its most advanced product candidate, in order to maximize the therapeutic and commercial potential of this compound. Exelixis believes cabozantinib has the potential to be a high-quality, broadly-active, differentiated pharmaceutical product that can make a meaningful difference in the lives of patients. Exelixis has also established a portfolio of other novel compounds that it believes have the potential to address serious unmet medical needs, many of which are being advanced by partners as part of collaborations.
